THIRD PRESIDENT MARRIED IN OFFICE

Those Previous to President Wilson Were Tyler and Cleveland-Neither Wilson Nor Mrs. Galt Desired White House Wedding.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 18.-Woodrow Wilson is the third president to be married during his term of office. President Tyler was the first and President Cleveland was the other. Mr. Tyler, like Mr. Wilson, was left a widower during his term. Two years later, in 1844, in New York City, he was married to Miss Julia Gardiner, who then presided at the White House functions during the last year of her husband's term of office. Grover Cleveland's marriage to Miss Francis Folsom took place in the Blue

The New Rural Teacher.

"The first requisite of a better country life is a better country school," states the Roosevelt country life com mission. To have better country schools we must have a new type of country teacher, one imbued with the love of the country, one who remains in the country because she loves it, and tries to impart an appreciation of the beauty of the country to the children. Dean Bailey prophesies "a new race of country teachers," and here and there we already see fine examples of teachers who have caught the vision, teachers who realize the wonderful possibilities in the country school for transforming the boys and girls of to-day into noble and effi cient men and women of to-morrow.-Ethel Harriet Nash in The Countryside
